Classical, Cabaret & Cool

Join Music in the Vineyards for another fabulous fête of Napa Valley food, wine and music at what promises to be the most talked about celebration of the summer. Starting with an outdoor wine and hors d'oeuvres reception, you progress into the beautiful carriage house for a short slice of chamber music with Michael and Daria Adams and notable winery talents; a cabaret performance follows with local stars who are sure to heat up the evening. A gourmet dinner then awaits you on the lawn under the stars with a lively auction hosted by auctioneer extraordinaire, Fritz Hatton. The night concludes with The Fabulous Screwtops, whose cool rock sounds will have everyone on their feet, dancing the night away beneath and amongst the stars of Napa Valley. Roll Over Beethoven benefits Music in the Vineyards and its education and community-focused chamber music programs.

Napa Valley Chamber Music Festival August 7–25, 2013

19TH ANNUAL FESTIVAL SEASON

This August, mark your calendar for the 19th season of Music in the Vineyards, Napa Valley's world renowned chamber music festival. Hear twelve remarkable programs, performed in unique winery settings where the music, the ambience and the wine all share the stage.

Our concerts are presented at some of the Napa Valley's most storied wineries: The Hess Collection, Beringer, Markham, Silverado, Robert Mondavi, Frog's Leap, Clos Pegase, Freemark Abbey and Black Stallion.

This year, we will feature several prize-winning young artists and ensembles that will be making their debut with Music in the Vineyards:

- The brilliant young Escher Quartet, who just completed a three-year residency at the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center.
- The Ortelius Piano Trio, featuring MITV favorites Dale Barltrop (violin), Joshua Roman (cello) and MITV newcomer, pianist Victor Ascuncion.
- Cellist Austin Huntington, winner of the 2012 Irving M. Klein International String Competition, held annually in San Francisco.
- Violist Paul Neubauer will debut with us in our first Friday concert on Aug 9th at Frog's Leap Vineyards in one of his specialties: a medley of Gypsy tunes that will highlight his remarkable technique and the full expressive range of the viola.

Then there are the returning favorites, the incredible musicians who seem to raise the bar with every appearance with us. This summer we welcome back the renowned Pacifica Quartet, pianists Wei-Yi Yang, Ieva Jokobaviciute and Eric Zivian, violinists Axel Strauss, Qing Hou and Erin Keefe, violists Lawrence Neuman and Jonathan Vinocour, cellists Tanya Tomkins, Michelle Djokic and Robert DeMaine, flutist Bart Feller and clarinetist Burt Hara.

One of the centerpieces of our 19th season is a special event presented in collaboration with the Napa Valley Museum: A fully-staged version of Stravinsky's "The Soldier's Tale", complete with actors, costumes and scenery, in two performances at the Napa Valley Museum. Conceived as part of a juried art show dealing with the Faust legend, the works will be on exhibit at the Napa Valley Museum through October 2013.

40 outstanding musicians will once again bring world-class music to your Napa Valley. Be prepared to buy tickets early, as once the word gets out advance ticket sales are brisk! We hope to see you in August.
